

NSC BRIEFING

17 JANUARY 1956

SOVIETS IN AFRICA, LATIN AMERICA

- I. Soviet advances into vulnerable underdeveloped areas increasing in momentum and scope.
  - A. Although greatest progress has been in south Asia, Middle East, Soviets see same opportunities in Africa, Latin America, and are now actively laying groundwork for exploitation.
- II. Soviet salesmen now moving deeper into Africa, where anti-colonial pitch pays big dividends.
  - A. First wheel was Pravda chief editor Shepilov--to Egypt in July '55: since then, professional glad-hander Volkov (whose position is roughly equivalent to "speaker of the House") has visited the Tubman inaugural in Liberia, and Ambassador to Belgium, Avilov, has wangled reluctant invitation to tour Belgian Congo.
  - B. In addition, New Soviet overtures have been made to Libya, Ethiopia and the Sudan.
- III. Libya - On 25 Sep '55, USSR recognized new Libyan state: Soviet ambassador and sizeable diplomatic delegation arrived 6 January.
  - A. Worth remembering that USSR bid for trusteeship over Tripolitania in '45.
  - B. Recognition brings Moscow closer to scene of turmoil in North Africa.
